Dear «Title» «Surname»,

Our practice is working with the School of Medicine at Keele University to look at a new way of reviewing how patients, like you, are managing long-term pain. We would like to invite you to attend a pain review appointment.

Please contact the practice on [practice telephone number] at your earliest convenience to book your appointment with our practice pharmacist.

Your appointment will be with [first name, last name], the practice pharmacist. Enclosed is an information leaflet about what to expect at your appointment and how you could prepare.

If you have any questions or would like to know more about this appointment, please contact the practice on [practice telephone number].

Yours sincerely,

[NAMED GP]
